The Artist Behind the Programme Cover Design

This year's programme cover is an original design executed exclusively for the 2009 UNWG's World Food Day Poster Competition by Anna Francescutti, who completed her BA Honours in Graphic and Media Design from the London College of Communication, University of the Arts in London, in 2009. Anna has done several photography commission work for high fashion magazines and events and has exhibited her work in several galleries in the UK.
