

RIGHT TO FOOD FORUM
PROGRAMME
1-3 October 2008

Rome, Italy, FAO Headquarters

Wednesday, 1 October 2008

09.00 - 10.00	Registration at the Turkish Registration Centre, Building A main Entrance
10.00 - 10.50 Green Room A122	Opening of the Forum and Keynote Speech
10.50 - 11.30 Green Room A122	Plenary Implementation of the Right to Food: where we stand
11.30 - 13.00 Green Room A122	Plenary Putting the Right to Food into Practice: Experiences in FAO Member Countries: Brazil, Guatemala
13.00 - 15.00	Lunch break
15.00 - 18.00 Green Room A122	Plenary Putting the Right to Food into Practice: Experiences in FAO Member Countries: India, Mozambique, Philippines, Uganda
18.30 - 20.00	Reception at FAO, Cafeteria Aventino Terrace 8th floor

Thursday, 2 October 2008

10.00 - 13.00	Parallel Panels
Panel 1 Philippines Room C277	Strong Voices: Advocacy and Training Only educated duty-bearers are able to keep their obligations and only knowledgeable rights holders have the ability to organize themselves and know how to claim their right to food.
Panel 2 Malaysia Room B227	Accessible Justice: Legislation and Accountability Only with enforceable justice, trusted institutions and a legal system oriented towards the human right to food will right holders be in a position to hold duty-bearers accountable for guaranteeing food security.

13.00 – 15.00	Lunch Break
15.00 – 18.00	Parallel Panels Panel 3 Philippines Room C277 Panel 4 Malaysia Room B227 Right Targets: Information and Assessment Duty bearers need information that assists them in identifying those right holders most in need and meet their demands for food security. Policies and programs should be focused on the most vulnerable and any discriminatory process identified and corrected. Durable Impact: Benchmarks and Monitoring Only through achievable goals and ongoing, community-based, national and international evaluation can duty-bearers and rights-holders achieve lasting food security.

Friday, 3 October 2008

10.00 – 13.00	Panel 5 Green Room A122 Effective Action: Strategy and Coordination Only through effective human rights-oriented policies and coordinated right based strategies can duty bearers fulfil their obligations to enable rights-holders to feed themselves.
13.00 - 15.00	Lunch break
15.00 - 16.30 Green Room A122	Plenary Looking Forward: Next Issues in the Right to Food Agenda
16.30 - 17.30 Green Room A122	Concluding remarks and closure Report by the Forum Rapporteur Final remarks