

MONITORING PROGRAMS CARRIED OUT BY PLANTED FOREST COMPANIES AND ITS ROLE TO BIODIVERSITY CONSERVATION

Tuesday, May 3, 06:30 - 8:00pm

This side event aims to share experiences, challenges, new methodologies, and strategies of the private sector regarding the ongoing improvement process of the monitoring programs of the biodiversity.

06:30	Welcome Moderator: Barbara Tavora Jainchill United Nations Forum on Forests (UNFF)
06:45	Brazilian planted trees industry and biodiversity conservation Patrícia Machado – Brazilian Tree Industry (Ibá)
07:00	Biodiversity conservation strategy for forest plantations in Portugal Paula Guimarães - The Navigator Company
07:15	Biodiversity and plantation practices in South Africa Jane Molony - Paper Manufacturers Association of South Africa (PAMSA)
07:30	Panel of discussion
07:50	Closing Remarks

