

The Land and Water Division and the “Food for the Cities” multidisciplinary initiative

are pleased to invite you to a

Seminar on “Water for cities: responding to the urban challenge”

in the framework of World Water Day Events.
www.worldwaterday2011.org

Tuesday 22nd March 2011, 10h00 – 12h15
Iran Room (FAO HQs, Rome)

Agenda

Moderator: Audrey Nepveu-IFAD

Opening / Welcome speech and Introduction of the FAO Water Platform Parviz Koohafkan – NRL

Introduction of “Food for the Cities” multidisciplinary initiative water related activities and approach Paul Munro-Faure - NRC

FAO activities:

Water quality and food safety Vittorio Fattori – AGND
Water Re-Use and Urban and Periurban Agriculture Javier Mateo-Sagasta – NRL
Integrated fish farming strategies: towards efficiency in water reuse Ruth García Gómez –FIRA

Watershed management: contribution of urban and peri-urban forestry Michelle Gauthier - FOMC

A donor’s view on Water for Urban and Peri-Urban Agriculture Alberto López – TCSR

Field project: Promoting the use of quality water for urban and periurban agriculture: A reality check in Dakar, Sénégal Mama Touré – FAO Senegal

Plenary discussion

The World Water Day 2011 campaign aims to encourage governments, organizations, local communities and people to engage and participate in the challenge of urban water management. (see: <http://www.worldwaterday2011.org/>). Get engaged!