

THE UN FOOD SYSTEMS SUMMIT AND ITS IMPLICATIONS FOR CFS – DRAFT CONCLUSIONS

1. The Committee:
  - a. Congratulates the United Nations Secretary General, his Special Envoy, and all those involved in organizing and implementing the September [...] 2021 United Nations Food Systems Summit, including the Secretary General’s Statement of Action, action coalitions, national commitments, and proposals for follow-up;
  - b. Welcomes the background paper prepared by the CFS Secretariat on “The United Nations 2021 Food Systems Summit and its Implications for the Committee on World Food Security”;
  - c. Considers a presentation delivered by [.....];

2. The Committee took note of the potential implications of the UNFSS on its structures and Multi-Year Program of Work (MYPoW) for 2020-2023, as discussed in the background paper, and invites the Bureau to consider the establishment of a working group among its Bureau and Advisory Group members, under the leadership of the CFS Chairperson, to consider how CFS should respond to suggestions by, and outcomes of, the UNFSS that are relevant to the Committee, its vision, and its Program of Work;
  - a.
  - b.
  - c.