

Permanent Representation of Brazil to the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations and related international organizations

N. 123

The Permanent Representation of Brazil to the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations presents its compliments to FAO -Committee on World Food Security- and in reference to the current discussions about the work stream "Data collection and analysis tools for food security and nutrition" has the honor to inform the following.

2. In Brazil, the responsibility for collecting and diffusing data about food and nutritional security at the federal level lies, among others, with the Ministry of Citizenship (formerly Social Development), the Ministry of Health and the Brazilian Institute of Geography and Statistics.

3. The federal organs have finished collecting data for the 2022 National Mapping of Food and Nutritional Safety and Mapa Insan, a tool that identifies and locates families in food or nutritional insecurity situation, both which will be published shortly. The latest edition of the second publication is available at the following address:
