

IDLO comments on the preliminary proposals – MYPoW

In line with IDLO's mandate as the only global intergovernmental organization exclusively devoted to promoting the rule of law to advance peace and sustainable development, we would like to show our interest to support the following proposals:

- #3 Food Security Crisis – Conflicts and the fragility of food systems (High-Level Expert Forum and Global Thematic Event)
- #6 Preserving, strengthening and promoting Indigenous Peoples' food and knowledge systems
- #7 Right to Food – Action towards 2030
- #10 & #14 Addressing infectious diseases and other biological hazard events that challenge food security and nutrition: Emerging and re-emerging infectious diseases challenging FSN
- #11 & #29 Building resilient and equitable supply chains for Food Security and Nutrition; Resilient and equitable supply chains for food security and nutrition, building on the CFS RAI as their key foundation
- #12 Conflicts and the fragility of food systems
- #13 Diverse, equitable and resilient food systems: public reforms and creating enabling Conditions
- #15 Policy recommendations on promoting local and regional government engagement and sustainable and inclusive food systems
- #17 Principles For Responsible Investment In Sustainable Agriculture And Food Systems 2.0
- Update Of The PRAI To The 2030 Agenda
- #20 Revitalizing Climate Policies for Food Security and Nutrition
- #24 Collaborative governance for more effective, resilient and inclusive agrifood systems
- #25 Coordinating Policy Responses to the Global Food Security Crisis
- #26 Employment in food systems: improving workers well-being by bridging the gaps from data to policy
- #30 The role and rights of agrifood systems workers

We hope that our support to the selected proposal does not come too late for the Secretariat to consider IDLO's support to the workstreams that will be included in the new MYPoW 2024-2027. The selected proposals are in line with our work to enable governments and empower people to reform laws and strengthen institutions to promote peace, justice, sustainable development and economic opportunity. Using a human rights-based approach anchored on the rule of law and its core values of transparency and accountability, IDLO is willing to collaborate with the CFS during the next programmatic period.
