

Personal presentation

ICIMOD

IPROMO

*Managing mountain resources and diversities:
the role of protected areas*

Ormea 8-18 July 2016

Neha Bisht

neha.bisht@icimod.org

---

International Centre for Integrated Mountain Development

Kathmandu, Nepal

FOR MOUNTAINS AND PEOPLE

Education

- M.Sc. Natural Resources Management, TERI University, India (2008-2010)
- B.Sc. Forestry, Pantnagar University, India

Employment and main activities

- ICIMOD (2011-present)
- Winrock International India (Climate Change Adaptation)
- Internships: IUCN, India and Central Himalayan Environment Association, India on monitoring forest and agricultural biodiversity

My interests and hobbies

Organic farming, travelling, hiking, photography, singing, writing poems and reading

Transboundary Landscapes

Kailash Sacred Landscape (KSL)

China, India and Nepal with an area of 31000 km<sup>2</sup>.

Numerous sacred sites & 6 PAs

The Kailash-Manasarovar area forms the upper catchment of four of Asia's major rivers.

Mt. Kailash

ICIMOD

Participatory Natural Resource Management

Invasive species-impact analysis and management

Long term socio-ecological monitoring

Springshed research

Climate Proofing Value chains

Management planning for ecosystem services

Hindu Kush Karakoram Pamir Landscape (HKPL)

Area of 33000 km<sup>2</sup>

Pastoralism and agro-pastoralism

Wildlife- Marco
Polo and Snow
Leopard

Key Activities

- Rangeland assessment and resource use survey
- Livelihood diversification through value chains
- Supporting the development of Management Plan through a socio-economic study in Broghil National Park, Pakistan
- Regional species database
- Transboundary cooperation- Zero Point festival, exchange visits and regional planning

Pictures from the landscape

ICIMOD

Thank you

ICIMOD

Yi Shaoliang