

Soil Partners' Day

13 July 2023 | 13:00 14:00

German room

Academia and government working together to promote a change in soil attention in Mexico

University Program for Interdisciplinary Soil Studies (PUEIS)

The National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM)

GLOBAL SOIL PARTNERSHIP
11th Plenary Assembly
12-14 July 2023

AGENDA

Moderator: Natalia Rodriguez (FAO—GSP)

Time	Topic	Speaker
13:00-13:05	Opening remarks	H.E. Miguel García Winder Ambassador and Permanent Representative from Mexico to the UN Agencies Based in Rome of Mexico to UN Agencies
13:10-13:20	What does the government of Mexico do for soil? National Soil Strategy for Sustainable Agriculture of Mexico (ENASAS)	Sol Ortíz General Director on Policies, Prospective and Climate Change, at the Secretariat of Agriculture and Rural Development of Mexico, and Chair of the Latin American and Caribbean Soil Partnership .
13:20-13:30	The soils of Mexico and the importance of agricultural efforts on soil from academia, government, and society What does the Academia-UNAM do for soils? Strategy of the University Programme for Interdisciplinary Soil Studies (PUEIS), from the Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM)	Blanca Prado Researcher at the Institute of Geology. Coordinator of the University Programme of Interdisciplinary Soil Studies (PUEIS), National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM)
13:30-14:00	Roundtable with relevant topics of collaboration between GSP and the national actors from Mexico	Sol Ortíz Blanca Prado Filippo Benedetti (FAO—GSP) Yusuf Yigini (FAO—GSP) Carolina Olivera (FAO—GSP)