

Peak to Peak: Mountain Partnership Newsletter

working together for mountain peoples and environments

Call for participation, IPCC special report

As part of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) sixth assessment cycle, an IPCC Special Report on the Ocean and Cryosphere in a Changing Climate (SROCC) is currently being written and is to be completed and published by the end of 2019. The report assesses the relevant literature on this topic, with a focus on literature since the IPCC ...

Read more »

HIGHLIGHTS

MP products at mountain agriculture conference

Umesh Lama of Organic World and Fair Future Pvt Ltd. (OWF), a member of the Mountain Partnership, participated in the second International Conference on Nutrition Sensitive Agriculture in Mountain Areas in Kathmandu, Nepal on 27–28 February 2018. The conference brought

Explorers carry MP flag to the Arctic

“The Last Ice” is a project of exploration, adventure and science on some of the last frozen lakes of the northern hemisphere. A team of three athletes – climber and author Paku Crestas, entrepreneur and writer Albert Bosch and climber Pepe Ivars – with vast experience in

Empowering indigenous women

On 12–13 January 2018 during the High Level Forum “Empower indigenous women to eradicate hunger and malnutrition in America Latina and the Caribbean”, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) launched the advocacy campaign “Make them visible,

Clean energy, sustainable mountain communities

A round table to discuss the outcomes of the pilot project “Clean energy: sustainable communities” was held on 9 February 2018, in Yapshorv Village, Savnob Jamoat (municipality), Gorno–Badakhshan Autonomous Region, Tajikistan. The event was attended by the together rural service providers of the Mountain Agro-ecosystems Action Network, policy-makers, businesses and scientists from around the globe to share their knowledge and experiences about nutrition-sensitive agriculture initiatives that improve the livelihoods of rural communities ...

Read more »

extreme environments will study and document the impacts of climate change while traversing the main freshwater lakes in Arctic Canada, Russia and Siberia, and concluding in the North Pole. On their expeditions, the athletes will be carrying with them the Mountain Partnership flag. ...

Read more »

empower them". The campaign seeks to increase the empowerment of indigenous women through the recognition of their contributions and challenges to the achievement of Zero Hunger and the whole Sustainable Development Agenda. ...

Read more »

jamoat officials, women from the project's target group, village advocates and the staff of Little Earth and local non-governmental organization "Oyandasoz". The round table provided an opportunity for the project's stakeholders and mountain beneficiaries to evaluate its outcomes ...

Read more »

FEATURED NEWS

- CEE Himalaya celebrates Women's Day
- ICENECDEV at the Mount Cameroon Race of Hope
- Mountains of Alicante, Spain at FAO
- 30 female artists paint mountains of Pakistan

UPCOMING EVENTS

- 2nd International Symposium on Agroecology
Venue: FAO HQ, Rome, Italy
- Mountain Travel Symposium
Venue: South Lake Tahoe, California, United States of America
- Trento Film Festival
Venue: Trento, Italy

PUBLICATION

2018 UN World Water Development Report: Nature-based Solutions

Read more

VIDEO

Water Matters, People Matter, Mountains Matter

Watch

MEMBERS

Currently, the Mountain Partnership has 328 members: 59 governments, 7 subnational authorities, 16 intergovernmental organizations and 246 major group organizations (e.g. civil society, NGOs and the private sector). Please feel free to contact them for possible collaborative projects and ideas.

CALL FOR NEWS

Keep Mountain Partnership members informed of your activities! Please email Sara.Manuelli@fao.org info about new projects and programmes, initiatives, events, publications, newsletters, vacancies or calls for papers.

The Mountain Partnership is a United Nations voluntary alliance of partners dedicated to improving the lives of mountain peoples and protecting mountain environments around the world.

www.fao.org/mountain-partnership/en/

© Mountain Partnership, 2018. All rights reserved.
