

Workshop on the assessment of information needs of the forestry sector

TCPF: Developing the institutional capacity of the National Forestry Agency in the preparation of NFI (TCP/MOL/3702/C1)

11 June 2019, Chisinau, Moldova

Draft Agenda

8:30-9:00	Registration and welcome coffee
9:00-9:20	Workshop opening Mr., Representative of the Moldsilva Mr. Tudor Robu, FAO Moldova Assistant Representative Presentation of participants – potential or expected role of the institution/NGO. What are aspirations of the participants – observer, stakeholder or contributor to the NFM design of implementation
9:20-9:40	TCP project introduction (10 min) Mr. Norbert Winkler-Ráthonyi Workshop goal and expectations (10 min). Identification of the steps and actors to elaborate a work plan to prepare and implement NFM
9:40-10:30	Assessment of national information needs SFM (Sustainable Forestry Management) criteria and indicators (15 minutes) Present a list of SFM criteria and indicators. Discussion about the criteria and their importance. Mr Adolt Assessment of SFM criteria importance at the national level (35 minutes) Organize assessment of preliminary importance of criteria and indicators – using paper forms with list of C&I and attaching simple weights to each of them. Stakeholders are also clearly identified by this exercise. Mr Adolt/ Mr Winkler-Ráthonyi
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-11:50	Assessment of national information needs (continuation) Known national information needs & current forestry issues (15 min). Mr. Continue broader discussion on informational needs, including international commitments of Moldova concerning forests. Presentation of assessment results, discussion and feedback (35 minutes).
11:50-12:30	Justification for a sound NFM Why NFM? A general, introduction of the term NFM, link to FAO voluntary guidelines, FRA (GFRA) terms and definitions etc. Small case study - Czech example. Q&A, discussion (15 min)
12:30-12:45	Workshop wrap-up and closing
12:45-13:45	Lunch