

FAO Session on Sustainable Soil and Land Management 18 June 2019

On the occasion of the International Congress on "Successful Transformation toward Land Degradation Neutrality: Future Perspective" 17–19 June 2019 in Ankara

AGENDA
	OPENING REMARKS
	Mr. Sumiter Broca, Senior Policy Officer, FAO
09:40-10:00	Ms. Ozlem Yavuz, Deputy Director General, General Directorate of Combat Desertification, Republic of Turkey Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry
	Mr. Hasan Özlü , Director General, General Directorate of Agrarian Reform, Republic of Turkey Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry
10:00-10:20	Land Degradation Neutrality: Integrated Planning Approaches for Sustainable Use of Land/Soil Resources for Agriculture and Forestry and Role of FAO Ms. Sara MarjaniZadeh , FAO Land and Water Officer
10:20-10:40	Global Soil Partnership (GSP): Unlocking the Potential of Soils to Achieve Land Degradation Neutrality and Sustainable Development Ms. Natalia Rodríguez Eugenio, GSP Secretariat
10:40-11:00	A Perspective of Sustainable Land Management in Central Asia: Opportunities and Challenges Ms. Sara MarjaniZadeh, FAO Land and Water Officer
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-11:50	Importance of Integrated Land Use Planning: An Overview of FAO Turkey Technical Cooperation Mr. Hakkı Emrah Erdoğan, Land Policy Expert
11:50-12:10	Enhancing Soil Governance from Global to the National Level: GSP experiences in Turkey towards Sustainable Soil Management Ms. Liesl Wiese, Sustainable Soil Management Expert
12:10-12:30	Open discussion
12:30-12:45	Q&A
12:45-13:00	Recommendations for future steps Closure of the session