

Mr. Tom Kuetzemeier

Tom Kuetzemeier is founder and CEO of mcongressconsult, a private consultancy focusing on Sustainability, Quality Management and Food Safety Projects in the international Food and Dairy Business. He is also Editor-in-chief of FOOD-Lab, a technical magazine for the Food and Dairy Industry, established in 2011. Further, he is well known as organizer of successful international Congresses and Trade Fairs in that field.

After receiving a M.sc. in Dairy and Agricultural Sciences at Munich University in 1982, he served as technical expert in the dairy industry: From 1992 - 2007 he was Secretary General of the German National Committee of the International Dairy Federation. In that capacity, he was active as an advisor in various Committees and groups of experts of the FAO/WHO Codex Alimentarius Commission.